Extravagant stories tending to depreciate Southern California are being circulated in the northern part of the state and in Oregon and Washington, according to P. C. Brown of 5345 North Delaware avenue, Eagle Rock, well known in Glendale real estate circles, who returned September 11 with his family from a three-months' automobile trip that took them as far north as Vancouver, B. C.

"I had to laugh when they talked about people walking around Los Angeles with their toes dropping off from the foot and mouth disease," he says. "From listening to some of the heavy propaganda being circulated to knock California, some glib people up there have actually been dissuaded from coming here. Most of them, however, are not kidded by such nonsense."

Preparations for the "court-martialing" of the prisoners got under way, while hundreds of their fellow workers fought a losing battle with three converging lines of fire that struck at the heart of the Monrovia watershed, rolling back, foot by foot, the exhausted defenders, fighting desperately to stay the advance of the fiery flood spilling over the crest of a protecting ridge.

Protect Monrovia

Alarmed by the progress of the fire, still burning out of control after thirteen days of desperate effort on the part of federal and county fire crews, now numbering almost 2000 men, the city of Monrovia today took steps to protect itself from a possible sweep of the flames.

Six additional fire engines will be rushed to Monrovia to supplement the town's firefighting equipment. Arrangements have also been made to throw a strong force of men around the city's wells in the nearby foothills, from which it derives 95 per cent of its water supply.

Superintendent White Says Enrollment to Be About 23 Per Cent Greater

The 198 teachers of the twelve city schools gathered in the auditorium of the Glendale Intermediate school at 10 o'clock this morning, where they were addressed by Richardson D. White, superintendent, and given final instructions prior to the opening of the fall term on Monday, September 15.

An evidence of the continued growth of the city is seen in the fact that last fall the city schools opened with 156 teachers and an enrollment of 4304 pupils.

Enrollment Increases

In adding forty-two teachers to the staff, Mr. White explained that he anticipates an enrollment this fall of at least 5294 pupils, a figure based on a steady increase of 23 per cent per year that has been recorded in the city school system for the last four years.

The Glendale and Wilson avenue intermediate schools will open at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning. Mr. White outlined in his address this morning to the teachers. The ten grammar schools, each with its kindergarten, will open at 9 o'clock. He announced that there will be special supervision in the primary grades, through Miss Annie L. McIntyre, assistant superintendent.

Series of Tests

Through arrangement with the University of California, J. Harold Williams, psychologist, will conduct a series of group and individual tests with the pupils, to determine their fitness for their grades. Mrs. A. C. Brown brought the greetings of the Board of Education to the meeting.

"While we realize that we are opening under difficulties and that there will be many half-day sessions made necessary by reason of the crowded conditions," said Mr. White, "nevertheless we feel that in other ways the fall term this year is opening under more auspicious circumstances than ever before and we are highly gratified with the teaching staff that has been assembled."

PLANES HIT AIR TRAIL TO HOME HANGAR

Perfect Weather for Start To Dayton; Officials Outline Route

BULLETIN

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept. 13.—The American round-the-world flyers were sighted about fifteen miles outside Dayton at 5:12 p. m. They had passed over Springfield, Ohio, at 5:08 o'clock.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 13.—With roofs and hills lined with people, bells tolling and whistles blowing, the round-the-world flyers passed over Wheeling en route to Dayton, Ohio, at 2:30 p. m.

By H. K. REYNOLDS For International News Service. WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—The United States army round the world flyers, after resting in Washington for three days and participating in the Defense day demonstration, turned their faces westward again today.

Piloting the airplanes Chicago, New Orleans and Boston II, Lieutenants Lowell H. Smith, Erik Nelson and Leigh Wade hopped off from Bolling field at 10:50 o'clock this morning, eastern standard time, heading for McCook field at Dayton, Ohio.

Two Times Delayed

The hop-off was twice delayed—first by an unfavorable weather report, which indicated rain in the vicinity of Parkersburg, W. Va., and then at 10:20 a. m. by an accident to Lieutenant Smith's plane.

In taxiing down the field for the hop-off, Smith swung the Chicago around in such a manner that the tailpiece of the big plane was torn off, making it necessary for all the flyers to stop until repairs could be made.

Smith got away first on the second hop-off, followed by Wade and Nelson.

Perfect Weather

The sun was shining brightly as the flyers soared up over the roof tops of the national capital, out across the southern part of the city, hovered for a minute over the crooked streets of ancient Georgetown and swept into Virginia.

Flying conditions were reported to be excellent all along the route with the exception of the storm in West Virginia. Lieutenant Smith estimated, however, that the planes would cover the 400 miles between Washington and Dayton in six hours at the most.

Announce Route

The official route of the flyers, as made public by the air service after their departure, follows:—Dayton, Chicago, Omaha, St. Joseph, Mo., Muskogee, Okla., Dallas, El Paso, Tucson, San Diego, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Eugene, Ore., and thence to Seattle.

Stops will be made at all these cities, thirteen in all.

SEVEN DAY CAMPAIGN TO START TUESDAY MORNING

More Than 200 Business Men All Set For Raising Fund To Secure Institution; Dinner Takes Place Monday Night

The stage is set and the curtain ready to ring up on the first act of one of the most potential campaigns, political, civic, patriotic or charitable, that Glendale has ever witnessed.

Tuesday morning more than 200 business men will leave their work and go to the Y. M. C. A. building campaign headquarters at the Presbyterian church to start a seven-day effort to raise the sum of $275,000 to make it possible for the boys and young men of Glendale to have the advantages, both preventive and constructive, of a modern Y. M. C. A. headquarters.

Sunday afternoon these same men, members of the campaign executive committee and of the twenty teams of solicitors, will come together for the first time as a group to receive instructions, "ammunition" and make personal choices of the people they are going to see for subscriptions. This "coaching" conference is scheduled for 3 o'clock at the church headquarters, with inspection of the prospect list open a half hour earlier.

Urged to Attend

General Chairman George D. McDill and division managers, Lyman P. Clark of the "N T G. Gang," C. W. Ingledue of the "Bear Cats," H. Park Arnold of the "Go-Getters" and James A. Newton of the "Live Y-ers" unite in urging every man related to the campaign organization to be in attendance at this first official line-up of the fighting forces. Full representation of the executive leaders and twenty divisional teams is regarded as vital to the success of the campaign and the men are requested to make every possible sacrifice in order to be present.

Head Coach E. L. Mogge will have charge of the "skull practice" and will conduct an intensive session in Y. M. C. A. salesmanship. He states that those present will be equipped for aggressive and fruitful action in this big civic offensive to capture hill after hill.

275,000. Victory will mean much, not only to the boys and young men and the girls and young women who are to be the special beneficiaries of the "Y" building, but, according to the promoters of the enterprise, will be a great piece of city advertising and create a keener consciousness of civic ability and develop a greater community spirit.

Dinner Monday Night

Monday night, Dr. I. Frank Roach of Long Beach, orator extraordinary, and Secretary Mogge will address the business men's "get-together" dinner at the Tuesday afternoon club. All those expecting to attend and have not made reservations are requested to call the campaign office, Glendale 130, and get their name "in the pot." A delectable repast is assured and a highly inspirational program without any solicitation of subscriptions.

Tomorrow is "Young Men's Day" in the co-operating churches of the city and special speakers are assisting the pastors in setting forth the merits of the type of Y. M. C. A. which can and will be done in Glendale with the building and equipment that is proposed if the campaign objective of $275,000 is fully subscribed. No funds are asked in the church services, the active work of solicitation beginning with Tuesday morning when all the men in the campaign organization will attend the "getaway gathering" at the headquarters.

The speakers' committee will be glad to furnish a speaker to

Makes Plea to Open Riverdale Drive Camp

A substantial class of motoring tourists, possible future residents of Glendale, who would undoubtedly spend money here and give the city advertisement among the "folks back home," are turned away daily from the closed auto camp on Riverdale drive, according to Mrs. W. S. Read of 418 West Acacia street, who is hoping the Glendale Merchants' association will make favorable report on Monday to the City Council. Mrs. Read says:

"If the Merchants' association, members of the City Council and the people of Glendale knew the number of tourists that are turned away from the closed camp every day, they would look at the proposition in a different light.

"The people patronizing auto camps are not the cheap, undesirable type, but are good, substantial Americans. Many of them have money to spend, and would spend it in Glendale if there were a camping place for them.

"The city of Glendale is paying out money for advertising the city. What better means of advertising could we find than the nice, cool, comfortable, sanitary auto camp now located on Riverdale drive?"

Changes Not Planned In Engineer's Office

There will be no radical changes in the policy or personnel of the engineering department at this time, announces John F. Johannsen, city engineer, succeeding Benjamin F. Dupuy, who tendered his resignation to the City Council on Thursday.

"All the departments of the office have pledged their loyal support to me," he stated this morning, "and everything is running smoothly. My appointment was a big surprise. It will be my policy to work in co-operation with the City Council, City Manager Virgil B. Stone and the people of Glendale. I do not wish any bouquets and will let my work speak for itself."

Mr. Johannsen has been in the city engineering department since January, 1921, first as chief draftsman and later as head of the sewer department. He is a graduate civil engineer and was for ten years with the United States government.

Thanks For Thoughtfulness

The management of The Glendale Evening News is enabled to publish a much better paper on account of the staunch support received from subscribers. The Evening News subscribers have largely formed the practice of paying three, six or twelve months' subscription in advance. The subscribers who pay by the month are in the minority.

Subscribers have learned that when a publisher spends money traveling the town over collecting small subscription accounts, he has just that much less money to put into making a good paper. The usual manner by which we receive these long time subscriptions is by mail or over the counter. Thanks for the thoughtfulness.

Grants Realty Board Fund for Advertising

The Board of Control, meeting yesterday afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce, voted to grant the request of the Glendale Realty board for a donation of $250 to be used in advertising Glendale at the annual convention of the California Real Estate association that is to be held in Pasadena in October. The board also voted to reimburse the realty board for the sum of $750 expended during the sewer bond campaign at the first of the year.

The appointment of L. H. Grady of Oakland as general assistant to the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Control was authorized by the board. Mr. Grady has been employed in the membership and service fund departments of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce for the past two years, and his work here will be largely in the collection of the advertising fund pledges at first and in securing new members for the local organization, permitting the secretary, Howard L. Wood, to devote more of his time to the supervision of the advertising campaign.

The members present at yesterday's meeting were D. H. Smith, chairman; J. Herbert Smith, secretary; Alex Mitchell, J. M. Boland, O. M. Newby, W. L. Truitt, C. C. Cooper, A. R. Eastman and Herman Nelson, with Paul E. Stillman, chairman of the advertising committee also present.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clough Home From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. H. Clough of 381 Salem street have returned home after spending six months in the east. They went by boat from San Pedro to the Panama Canal and to New York and from there motored to Washington, Vermont, Mr. Clough's old home, where he visited with his mother, Mrs. Emma F. Clough, and sister, Miss Alma Clough. After spending a few weeks here they motored to Boston, Mass., Philadelphia, Pa., Washington, D. C., Chicago, Ill., and other points of interest. They spent several weeks in Oshkosh, Wis., with Mrs. Clough's relatives. They next motored to Yellowstone National park for several days' outing and from there went to Portland, Ore., and en route home visited San Francisco, Sacramento and other northern points of interest. They found the route in fairly good condition except in Wisconsin, where there were only 27 days out of three months it did not rain. They report a delightful trip but are glad to return home to Glendale again.

Boy Rangers Return From Catalina Outing

Members of Lodge No. 142, Boy Rangers of America, and their guide, H. C. Wilcox, returned last night from a three-days' outing spent at Gallagher's Landing, Catalina Island. Through the courtesy of Benjamin Robison of Glendale and his large troupe of Scout Cubs of Catalina Island, a very interesting and enjoyable outing was spent in swimming, rowing, mountain hiking, exploring and nature study. The evening campfires at which Mr. Robison excels as an entertainer were particularly enjoyable. A ride on the glass-bottom boat and speed boats completed the outing. The boys now plan to start the fall ranger program with pep and increased interest.

Former Office Aids Make Gift to Dupuy

Benjamin F. Dupuy of 742 East Luita avenue, who resigned his position as city engineer and street superintendent on Thursday morning of this week, was visited at his home last night by a delegation from the engineering department, who presented him with an Elk tooth charm as a parting memento.

H. J. Hanemann, who made the presentation speech, declared the whole department regretted his loss, that they had cherished his leadership and friendship and that, while the former was now severed, they earnestly hoped that the latter would continue.

Mr. Dupuy was deeply touched by this symbolic token of the enduring friendship of his former associates. The gift of an Elk tooth carries with it a symbolism known to all members of that order, who regard it as something that must be obtained in this manner and not purchased.

Daily Greeting To News Readers

Were you building a monument to remain for ages, how majestic and substantial would be its construction? How much more august and solemn its life!

LOSING FAITH IN HUMAN NATURE

There is a pretty general feeling that something is wrong with society today. All sorts of reasons and causes are given for it. Each one has his own pet theory to advance as soon as the subject is brought up, and the subject is brought up, sooner or later.

Someone has advanced the idea that we are losing our faith in human nature, and that is the cause of all the ills of society today. This belief is not only reasonable, but all too true. When the Teapot Dome scandal first was made public an elderly man was expressing surprise and disbelief that these men could be guilty, as accused. A young man who heard him, said, "Why, don't you know that everybody is crooked?" All too many people today have that notion, especially some of the young men who were in the war. Society is not in a healthy state when it looks upon all men as crooks.

This lack of faith in the men who make and administer the laws naturally leads to disrespect for the laws themselves. We cannot look with favor on the work of those whom we mistrust.

It is deplorable that people, and especially the young people, should take the view that no one is to be trusted, for lack of faith and confidence in others reacts upon the one who mistrusts.

The newspapers have unwittingly helped to bring about this condition of affairs. They tell us about the crooks and say nothing about the good, honest, God-fearing people, for it is only the exceptional happening that is news, and it is not exceptional for men and women to be good, true to duty and honest to their fellows.

Everyone is not crooked, by any means, and, if the younger generation today could be taught to honor and respect integrity and consecration to high ideals in others, they would aspire to these qualifications for themselves, and many of the ills of society would vanish automatically.

Human nature is always the same, and it is fundamentally good and sound. Let us get back our faith in it and teach our children to see and respect the good in others.

VOTERS NOT ENTIRELY HELPLESS

A citizen says he does not vote because there is usually no candidate for whom he wishes to vote. He asks, "How can I protest? If I could vote against both candidates as a protest against a bad system I might vote. But to vote for the sake of voting, against one evil to put another into power—Bah!"

To vote without interest or enthusiasm, he contends, is as fallacious as not to vote at all, and yet he sees that to maintain democracy it is necessary for every citizen to have a voice in the government. His cure for this, he says, is to have political groups that would represent the various political views of the people. He thinks it foolish to divide the people of the country into two or three parties when they are of so many varying opinions. In other words, he wants a great number of parties or groups such as exist in some European countries.

These numerous groups in foreign countries have not proved to be conducive to good government. It was the multiplicity of parties in the Italian chamber, as much as any other cause, that deadlocked all government action and brought into being the Fascisti to put down the Reds. In France the same condition was apparent for a long time. The chamber was chiefly concerned with retiring ministers and presidents to the exclusion of other business, due to the number of parties represented.

The charge that there are never any worthy candidates or good measures to vote for is merely an excuse. There are evils in our government, and in our method of elections, but the American citizen is not so helpless in the matter of righting these wrongs as he would like to believe.

The citizen quoted above ought to be able to vote this year, although there are only four or five parties in the race, for does not La Follette represent nearly everything that the other parties do not, and some of the things that they do?

WORLD FLIGHT EPOCHAL

The world fliers will soon be home. The dangerous and unknown part of their journey has been accomplished. Their names will go down in history as the first to circumnavigate the globe by means of aircraft. The destruction of Major Martin's plane in Alaska turned out to be a bit of good fortune for at least one person, Lieut. Lowell Smith of Los Angeles, who thus became the leader in this epochal flight.

While the nation and the world is glorying in this achievement, there are a few crabs and pessimists who are asking, "What has been accomplished?" The fliers have taken their time and have not demonstrated that there is any advantage in aviation over other methods of travel, they say.

All this is true, but our pessimistic friends seem to forget that there must be a first time for everything, that the trail must be blazed, the course charted. Progress is a growing, an advancing, not something that is accomplished all at once. The completion of this world flight is not only the mark of an epoch in the history of the United States, but is an important event in the annals of the world's progress.

It seems very foolish that the fliers may not call their journey complete when they get back to Los Angeles, the point from which they started.

DEFEATING AGE

Mary Garden, famous diva, has a philosophy of life that has helped to keep her young, although her years are not a few, and her formula has nothing to do with the use of cosmetics or the manner of dressing the hair. She advances the opinion that one may become truly ageless through the exercise of one's intelligence.

Miss Garden states her philosophy thus: "Just so long as your mind is fixed upon the future, just so long as you possess some unrealistic ambition, or cherish some unaccomplished aspiration, some goal upon which you are concentrating every power that you possess, you are resisting age, no matter what your years may total in the counting. Age begins to defeat you only when your mind retreats into the past instead of advancing into the future."

We have all seen this theory work out in life. Men and women past the years of youth with a tremendous enthusiasm for life, active, alert and happy, looking always into the future. And on the other hand mere youths who have given up hope, aged by their mental attitude of discouragement or lack of ambition.

The only safe school lunch is the one served by the school cafeteria, under the supervision of the school authorities—under the direct supervision of the school dietitian.

ANOTHER BABY THEY'D ALL LIKE TO KISS

Partisanship

By DR. FRANK CRANE

It is a question whether partisanship is not like the breaking up of the atom. There is no stopping it. And there is developed inside of parties the same spirit that makes the party itself.

People are usually attached to parties from personal reasons as well as traditional and customary ones. No one is attached to a party by his intelligence, for a little sound thinking would be quite as apt to show him that he should revolt from his party as often as he clings to it.

It has been said of Protestantism that, being the spirit of revolt, it is in danger of constant schism and that it is very difficult for a body of Protestants to hold together. Since they began upon the principle of the resistance to authority, it is very difficult to curb that principle when it is once established.

We therefore see Protestantism breaking up into an infinite number of sects and divisions, once it has broken away from the mother church. In the same way we see that parties find it is increasingly difficult to hold their people together once they admit that loyalty to party is a greater thing than loyalty to the country itself.

It is a question whether Democrats hate Republicans worse than they hate other Democrats, and Republicans hate Democrats worse than they hate other Republicans.

It has been well said that we hate no one so much as our neighbor.

The party system is founded upon discontent and dissatisfaction. It is always a more telling argument when we speak of the defectiveness of our opposing party than of the merits of our own, and it is always easy to find defects in anything. Campaign literature and oratory, therefore, may be depended upon more to view with alarm what the other party does and has done than to point with pride to one's own party record.

Doubtless the party system will be cured by its own inherent viciousness. It will destroy itself by its own principles.

Horoscope

Astrologers read this as an unfavorable day for most human interests. Venus, Uranus and the Sun are all in evil place during the busiest hours from morning until sunset.

Women should not undertake anything important today, for the best efforts may be thwarted.

It is an especially menacing rule for love affairs, making for quarrels between those who are betrothed and grave mistakes among those who seek adventure.

Both men and women should doubt their judgment at this time when the mind may be susceptible to wrong suggestions of every kind.

Under this rule campaign oratory of the sort that is not confined to truth may have great effect in misleading crowds.

Above all, persons should avoid seeking the counsel or approval of persons in high positions, or those who exercise even small authority.

It is a most unlucky sway under which to seek employment, and in certain cities there may be many industrious men and women idle.

In the horoscope of the Prince of Wales, astrologers read a dubious sign in regard to his possible accession to the throne. The prince is not likely to marry for at least four years, unless he makes a sensational choice.

This is a day in which to take no risks of any sort, and it will be wise to face facts in one's life, for the seers say it will be well to have the next few years well protected.

Places under Cancer should now benefit greatly and to Scotland especially should, some great good come.

Success for American artists on the concert stage may be many this season.

Music is subject to a direction of the stars which should be profitable to all who reach high attainment.

Persons whose birth date it is should avoid travel or removals in the coming year. Business may be rather troublesome, but it can be made exceedingly profitable.

Children born on this day may be unlucky in small things, but able to accomplish much in big enterprises.

There are about 10,000 commercial coal mines in the United States.

Today's Poem

GETTING HIM READY FOR SCHOOL

By MRS. NANNO WOODS

Boys seem to me like chestnut burrs—

Good and sweet when you get inside,

But hard to handle, bristling with pride,

And full of resentful pride.

There's nothing on earth that they don't know,

They are bound to boss and rule;

And the hardest job a mother has

Is to get her boy ready for school.

The boy that I know is 10 years old,

Big enough to wash his face,

But he doesn't approve of the use of soap,

And responds with little trace

Of pleasure or joy when told to go

In the early morning cool

To scrub his hands and brush his hair

And get himself ready for school.

If the water is hot, it ought to be cold;

If cold, it ought to be hot;

You're a mutt if you say his ears

should be washed—

Geewhiz, he knows they should not.

He wriggles and fidgets and dodges about,

Sometimes he will call you a fool—

A mother needs all the patience she has

To get her boy ready for school.

But later on, when dinner is done,

And the bedtime hour draws near,

Perhaps he will come of his own accord

And will call you "mother, dear."

He will sheepishly say: "You're not a mutt;

I'm sorry I called you a fool.

I'll try to be good next time you start

To get me ready for school."

Oh, the heart of a boy is a prickly burr,

So easily hardened and shut;

But a mother's eternal patience and tact

Will find how to open the nut.

It's worth an effort to hold your boy's heart,

To always keep loving and cool;

The reward will come—though

Who's Who

The recent primaries in Wisconsin indicates clearly to political experts that Robert M. La Follette is stronger in his home state than ever before.

His candidates carried the Republican primaries by approximately two to one including every congressman on the ticket.

The renomination of Gov. Blaine by a plurality running over 70,000 indicates the strength of the presidential candidate's forces.

Blaine's success at the polls is all the more indicative because of the fact that a supposed break between him and Senator La Follette over the selection of Zimmerman for secretary of state was given publicity before the primaries.

Gov. Blaine is now serving his second term as chief executive of Wisconsin. His first political office was that of mayor of Bosconob, Wis. He held that office three terms.

He served as a member of the state senate for four years, 1909-13. He became attorney-general of the state in 1919.

He was one of the authors of the Wisconsin state workmen's compensation act. He is a native of Wisconsin and was born at Grant county, May 4, 1875.

SHE'LL DO FOR THE PRESENT

Her (selecting the wedding guests): "But, my dear, we can't invite Mrs. Jones—why just think of her past."

Him: "Yes, I know, dear; but think of her present."

PERFECT HEARING

Two negroes were talking about their abilities to see and hear. Then one said: "Does you see dat house ober dar on de horizon?"

"Yes."

"Can you see dat fly walkin' eround on de roof?"

"No, nigger, but I kin hear de shingles crack wh'n he steps on dem."

It's troublesome now—

To get your boy ready for school.

15 New Studebakers

Including an entirely new type of car—the DUPLEX-PHAETON

Today Studebaker has made Automobile History and established standards of value and quality more fully and obviously than ever before.

TODAY Studebaker proves that beautiful, distinctive, stylish body lines can be originated by American body designers without following precedent or imitating or adapting what has been done before.

Today Studebaker proves that a practical and beautiful type of car can be made to combine the pleasure and performance of the open car and the comfort and protection of the closed car—and this without excessive price or compromised quality—a car "duplex" in open-car smartness and convenience and closed-car elegance and comfort—and at a price no higher than that of an open car!

Today Studebaker proves, in its new Standard Six Duplex model, that a six-cylinder car of fine quality, great power, plenty of room and impressive appearance can be made and marketed at a price of $1145.

Today Studebaker proves in its new Special Six and its Big Six Duplex models that the ultimate in all the essential features of quality in five- and seven-passenger cars can be made and marketed at a price of $1495 and $1875 respectively.

And this is possible only because Studebaker cars are made in one of the most comprehensive industrial plants in this country, 70 per cent of which is new within the last six years.

Every modern method of manufacture and long experienced management are available for the production of Studebaker automobiles.

Today Studebaker proves that the highest grade closed car bodies—framed in selected hard woods, cushioned with the best cushion work, upholstered in fine mohair fabrics and fitted with expensive appointments—can be made and marketed on superlatively good chassis at moderate prices.

This is made possible by the new $10,000,000 Studebaker closed body plants. Studebaker designs and builds all of its closed bodies in one of the best equipped and most modern body plants in the industry.

The Three New Chassis

THE STUDEBAKER STANDARD SIX—113 in. wheelbase, 5-passenger. Engine,  $3\frac{1}{2} \times 4\frac{1}{2}$ , 50 h.p.—with 6 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Duplex-Roadster, Coupe-Roadster, Coupe, Sedan, and Berline.

THE STUDEBAKER SPECIAL SIX—120 in. wheelbase, 5-passenger. Engine,  $3\frac{1}{2} \times 5$ , 65 h.p.—with 5 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Duplex-Roadster, Victoria, Sedan, and Berline.

THE STUDEBAKER BIG SIX—127 in. wheelbase, 7-passenger. Engine,  $3\frac{1}{2} \times 5$ , 75 h.p.—with 4 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Coupe, Sedan, and Berline.

The Ten New Closed Bodies

COMPLETELY NEW BODIES—each car a masterly expression of modern style, yet distinctly original in beautiful lines—individual, conservative, impressively elegant, but crisp enough in its departure from imitation to be entirely distinctive.

Three completely new chassis!... 15 completely new bodies!

Completely new lines! . . . . . Marvelous new performance

Completely new open-closed car!

Completely new radiators, new fenders, new lamps, new seating comfort, new finish, new colors in lacquer finish, three improved engines

Real balloon tires, not low-pressure cords. Sizes—21" x 5.25" to 20" x 7.30".

New Studebaker automatic hydraulic 4-wheel brakes—optional.

New values, never before equaled—even by Studebaker!

The Five New Duplex Bodies

(A new type of car originated by Studebaker to take the place of the open car)

SO ENTIRELY NEW and so different from any other body ever made before that a new name had to be created—the DUPLEX.

The upper structure is shaped in pressed steel and covered with the finest water-proof fabric. The steel construction permits the use of another radical Studebaker creation, the new roller enclosing curtains. There is the permanent beauty and durability of the steel top plus the instant convenience of the roller curtains.

Thus Studebaker engineers have solved the open-closed car problem.

The buyer who wants the airiness and practical convenience of the open car and who also wants the comfort, protection and beauty of the closed car can now get both in one car and at the price of an open car.

One moment the new Studebaker Duplex is a beautiful open car—a touch of the hand to the over-lapping roller curtains and it is a snug weather-tight closed car.

Balloon Tires

Genuine and full size balloon tires on all models. Every part that functions with the tires has been specially designed for balloon tire equipment—steering gear, steering knuckles, spindles and springs, even the fenders.

New Lacquer Finish

The Standard Six closed bodies are beautifully finished in semi-glaze, satin lacquer. The hood and lower panels are in light gray, the upper panels in darker gray. Hair-line parallel striping in oriental red. Burnished nickel radiators, jet black fenders, light golden finished, natural wood wheels and big balloon tires are contrasting touches.

The Standard Duplex Models are finished in glossy jet enamel—lasting, lustrous and wear-resisting.

The Special Six and the Big Six Duplex models are in soft satin lacquer with dark blue hoods and bodies striped in light blue and ivory. Here, too, the sparkle is added with burnished nickel radiators and light, natural wood wheels in contrast with jet black fenders and big, black balloon tires.

More Power

The universally famous Studebaker engine is more than ever a peer among power plants. The crankshaft is heavier. ALL surfaces are perfectly machined to exact dimension and balance. The bearings are larger.

The engine is in unit with the clutch and transmission. There is a force feed lubrication system with clean, strained oil always in reserve. There are many changes and improvements which result in MORE POWER, MORE QUIETNESS and SMOOTHNESS and STILL BETTER PERFORMANCE in every way.

New Brakes

Larger, more powerful, simpler and much easier operated two-wheel brakes. An entirely new emergency brake is operated from the instrument board, instantly convenient to the driver's hand where it simplifies the control and frees the floor board from the old style lever. It acts on the propeller shaft. There is uniform pressure at each wheel—equalized through the rear axle.

The regular two-wheel Studebaker brakes with their simplicity, safety and great braking power are entirely adequate.

But Studebaker 4-Wheel Hydraulic Brakes (with disc wheels) can be furnished as optional equipment on all models at extra charge if desired.

Studebaker 4-Wheel Brakes have three exclusive features not found on any other system in this country.

1. Braking pressure is furnished by hydraulic power automatically developed. A light touch to the braking pedal controls its great force like a touch to the throttle controls the power of the engine. This feature will appeal instantly to women.

2. The front wheels cannot lock.

3. There are only two adjustments required—one at each rear wheel. The front brakes are permanently adjusted at the factory. The oil in the transmission is used to generate the hydraulic power; the action of the gears and the pump keep it in circulation: it cannot congeal or freeze. Braking power is always instantly ready—in winter as well as in summer!

New Ease of Operation

New Ease of Gear Shifting—New power in braking, a touch to the pedal exerts a giant's strength at the rear wheels—New clutch action, soft as velvet—A new steering gear and steering knuckles designed for balloon tires—A new grouping on the dash, including ALL the usual instruments plus a gasoline gauge that always works accurately.

Lighting Control Switches—all on the steering wheel— instantly handy.

Automatic Spark Control—No manual attention required, so the lever is eliminated. Automatically governed to all speeds with the precision of machinery.

And the Details

The new cars are longer and lower to the ground. The line from the radiator to the rear is nearly straight. The wheelbase of all models is increased.

The fenders are much wider and deeper crowned to cover the width of the tires. They fit more closely over the wheels. The rear fenders are long and gracefully curved into the running boards.

The radiators are high and set low in the frames and convex curved just below the filler cap. The design is strikingly original and beautifully distinctive.

Entirely new head lamps and cowl parking lamps designed by Studebaker—artistically appropriate and in perfect keeping with the originality of the body and fender design.

Deeper, stiffer frames, more cross members; shorter, flatter springs for balloon tires. All bodies lower, all roomier, better and more comfortably cushioned. Seats are lower, backs and sides are higher.

Look Forward Into Next Year

The new Studebaker is here today! And no matter how sweeping your ideas of what a new model should be this car will satisfy you. It will thrill you with the very newness and originality of its beautiful lines!

You may not be in the market now, or even this year. But to see the new Studebaker is to look forward into next year—and the year after! SEE IT TODAY!

GLENDALE, LOS ANGELES COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, SEPT. 13, 1924

NEW SALES MANAGER FOR BARNUM-WALTERS CO.

BUILDERS TO PROTECT CLIENTS

'Unscrupulous Contractors' To Be Eliminated From Industry, Is Plan

In an effort to unite various elements of the building industry in a movement to suppress "irresponsible builders," and to secure support of municipal and county authorities in the prosecution of cases coming to their attention, the Los Angeles Builders' Exchange is launching a widespread campaign in Southern California, declared Paul F. Langworthy, secretary of the exchange, in an announcement made public today.

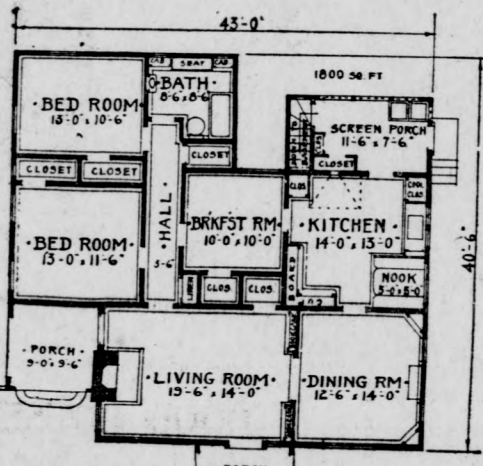

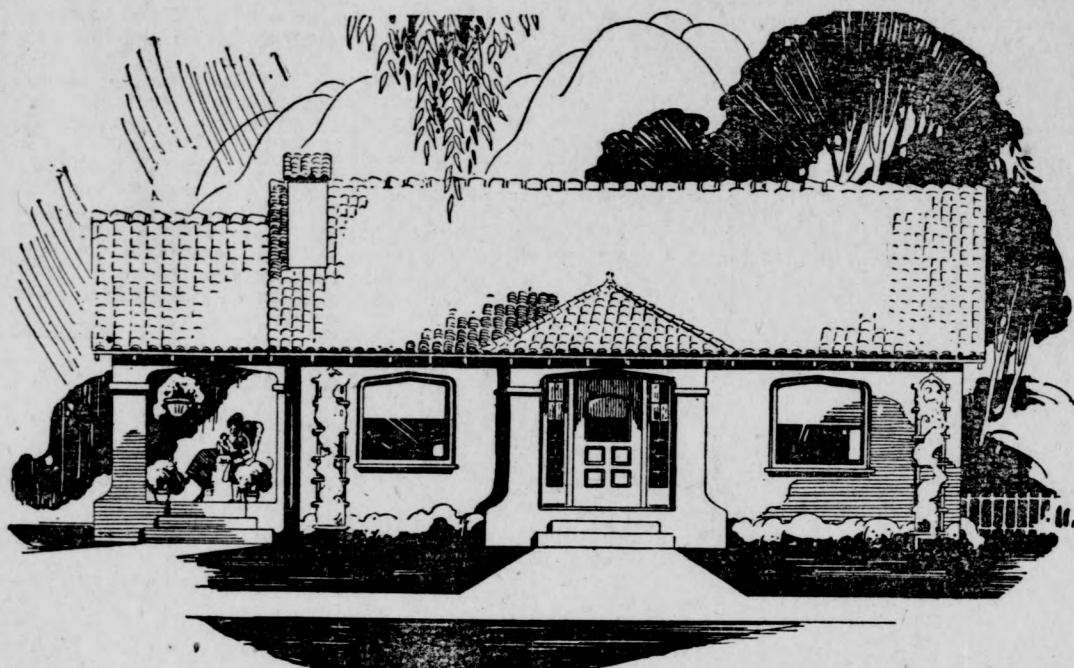

The support of contractors and dealers throughout Southern California will be sought, according to Langworthy, and officials of the exchange will address gatherings in Glendale, Santa Monica, Venice, Pasadena, Long Beach, San Diego, Orange county and San Bernardino.

The Builders' Exchange is composed of more than 800 members of the building industry and it is the purpose of the organization to weed out those men who are working to the detriment of the industry, said Langworthy.

"There are various issues of vital importance before the builders and dealers, but the problem of the 'unscrupulous contractor' is the one calling for immediate attention. We intend to proceed against him in two ways: First, by eliciting the support of the entire building industry of Southern California, either through membership or affiliation with the Builders' Exchange of Los Angeles; and, second, when this is accomplished, by presenting a united front against unethical methods of every description, and in securing additional legislative measures, which will make it possible for owners who have been wronged to file criminal as well as civil actions against the 'unscrupulous contractor.'"

Sure Cure For Divorce

Judge Walter Guerin of Los Angeles declares that 'Own your own home' is a sure cure for divorce. The plan shown below is one of many on file at the Bentley Lumber Co., located at 460 West Los Feliz road. Their plan service department is glad to assist those desiring to build.

FLOOR PLAN NO. 1627

You'll like this home plan because it's different.

While the exterior is shown in stucco it would be equally as attractive built of frame or brick. The landscape windows in front offer a wonderful view from living and dining room, and the corner covered porch is used as a combination recreation and entry.

Three well arranged bed rooms make this home practical for a large family—the bath room is spacious and by means of a convenient hall offers direct connection to the main rooms. In the kitchen and on the back screened-in porch every conceivable labor and time-saving convenience is included; in fact, nothing has been omitted or overlooked which would make this a real home.

Judge Walter Guerin of Los Angeles prescribes three things as a cure for the divorce evil.

First—Own your own home.

Second—Live in that home without relatives, boarders or friends.

Third—Give more consideration to the question of marrying, and don't marry in haste.

These are three very excellent thoughts. By owning your own home you become a shareholder in your own community. It is a boost for Glendale and the things which will make Glendale a cleaner and better city year after year.

Freedom For Children

A home gives freedom for the children, that puts color in tiny cheeks and health in little bodies—there are so many advantages in home owning. The home pays dividends finer than gold. There are no dividends to compare with comfort and contentment, no returns equal to the personal pride felt by the man who owns the home that shelters his family. No matter how modest it may be, build your home substantially.

The above plan is furnished by the Bentley Lumber Co., situated at 460 West Los Feliz road, who are Glendale's prominent building material merchants. This plan is one of hundreds that are on exhibition at their offices and may be seen in actual hand colored photographs by calling at their plan service department.

Road to Follow Easy Grade Through Valley

SUNLAND, Sept. 13.—A plan to establish a paved road with an easier grade than the present state highway west of Sunland, from the bridge over the wash to the floor of the Tujunga valley to the east, is to be promoted by a committee appointed by the Sunland Chamber of Commerce, consisting of S. H. Garner, Jos. Spencer, Joe Ardizzone and Mr. Gerner. The committee will co-operate with the supervisors in securing rights-of-way on North street, a road which offers practically a natural grade approach that will eliminate a steep grade just west of Sunland where the state highway emerges from the Tujunga wash, after crossing the new bridge.

Road improvement plans for the coming year were approved by the chamber at the last meeting. The improvement program was drawn by a committee from the roundtable of the valley.

Railway to Parallel Line With Motor Bus

LANSING, Sept. 13.—The Michigan Electric railway is extending its motor bus service from here to St. Johns, parallel to its own electric line.

EXTENSION OF HIGHWAYS SOUGHT

Use of Cement to Improve Roads Is Advocated By Association

Recognizing the interest of American motorists in more and wider permanently paved highways, the Portland Cement association, with offices in twenty-nine cities, is constantly working to improve and extend the uses of concrete.

"Now is the ideal time to extend both street and road programs," is the greeting the Portland Cement association is broadcasting to municipalities across the nation.

Along this line an official of the association says:

"The 'horseless carriage' of yesterday is now being produced as the modern automobile at the rate of 4,000,000 a year. The total number of motor vehicles registered in the United States is over 16,000,000.

Less Than Needs

"But there is an obstacle standing in the way of maximum service to owners. For, while the automobile industry made the paved highways an economic necessity, the mileage of such roads is today years behind the requirements of modern traffic.

"Happily, motorists everywhere are boosting for more and wider paved highways. And extensive experience has taught them that concrete highways are one of the best all-around investments they can make, an investment that pays big dividends."

Sales Head

A. M. MORRISON, newly-appointed general sales manager for Barnum-Walters Co., with present activities centered at Sparr Heights, where much money is being spent on improvements.

Taxes Render British Landlords 'Desperate'

CHESTER, England, Sept. 13.—The Marquis of Cholmondeley's position, owing to inheritance taxes which have been levied upon him, is "desperate," according to a statement by his agent.

Tenants of the Marquis petitioned for the privilege of purchasing their holdings, prior to public sales which have been announced. The agent replied that Marquis Cholmondeley would like to accede to the request, but that the situation demanded "desperate treatment."

A. M. MORRISON TO DIRECT SELLING OF PROPERTIES

Ability Wins Promotion For Man Prominent In Organization; Development Work Is Under Way at Sparr Heights

Barnum-Walters Co. announce the appointment of A. M. Morrison as their sales manager, with activities at present centered in Sparr Heights. Mr. Morrison, formerly in charge of the Barnum-Walters Hollywood office, has been with this concern for over a year.

"We consider ourselves particularly fortunate in having a man of Mr. Morrison's ability in charge of our sales," said Mr. Barnum. "I have known him for a long time and have kept an eye on his work, with the result that we decided to offer him the best berth in our power to give. Already we have felt a very noticeable increase of enthusiasm all through our selling staff, for Mr. Morrison has established a reputation for living up to his word and carrying out his promises to the letter, as well as possessing an inherent faculty for making friends and keeping them."

Mr. Morrison, who was born in Iowa, jocularly declares it is his intention of "moving the capital of Iowa from Long Beach to Sparr Heights."

In Show Business

In his successful selling career he has been connected with the Beckly-Ralston accessory house in Chicago, was state agent for Fisk G. J. Tires in Iowa, and a number of other prominent business houses. He has also had exceptional opportunity to study human nature in all its phases during his connection with the show and theatrical business. He has been on Pantages circuit, played opposite many well known stars in stock and road companies all over the Pacific coast, was associated with Will J. Davis, well-known theatrical man of Chicago. It was during this period that he barely escaped the great Iroquois theatre fire in Chicago. At other times he was secretary of publicity of "Ancient Rome" on the pike at the St. Louis World's Fair and two years was manager of "Hoyt's Trip to Chinatown."

At Sparr Heights

Undaunted by the most discouraging combination of setbacks that ever retarded business in Southern California, the Barnum-Walters Co. has demonstrated its unwavering faith in the future of the city and environs by going ahead on a gigantic scale with the improvements at Sparr Heights. In fact, they have spent approximately $560,000 on this work in the past seventeen months.

This is a splendid example of the courage and foresight that has been behind the progress of Los Angeles, and which has put Glendale in its present high rank.

In spite of the abnormal drought of last winter which prematurely slowed down sales; in spite of the nation-wide depression of a presidential campaign year which was bound to react upon Los Angeles and, even more serious, the hoof-post, with Commander Joseph Wilson presiding, the post adopting a resolution to this effect after Vice-Commander E. W. Gilliland had reported to the organization on yesterday's exercises.

Mr. Gilliland was also delegated to take the colors of the Glendale post to the national convention of the American Legion at St. Paul, in his capacity as official representative of the local post.

Comrade W. J. Horstman conveyed an invitation to the post to attend the Home Town contest that is to be held by the Glendale Realty board at the Harvard Street High school on Thursday, September 18, at 8 o'clock.

Dinner at Oakmont
It was decided to hold the annual dinner and get-together meeting of the post at Oakmont Country club on Tuesday, October 14, and efforts will be made to secure the attendance of every member of the post on that date.

An invitation from the Owensmouth post asking the Glendale veterans to attend the celebration that will mark the completion of the Owensmouth post's new clubhouse on September 15, was received, and several of the members signified their intention of attending the housewarming.

The blue prints showing the complete plans for the proposed Legion stadium that is to be erected at Los Feliz road and Central avenue were shown by Comrade William Wilson, and were inspected by the members. The work is to start shortly on the construction of the building, it is stated, and bids from contractors are to be received within the next few days. The building is expected to cost well over $100,000.

From Lamanda Park
The arrival of a delegation from the Lamanda Park post, consisting of some twenty men, was in the nature of a surprise party, but the hosts of the local organization provided refreshments for the guests before the close of the meeting.

Action on the proposed membership drive has been held over pending the return of Adjutant E. E. McWain, who accompanied his mother's body east for interment.

Karr, 509 Spencer Place, and left this morning for her home in Kalmar; Mrs. Cota Farman of West Burchett street, mother of Charles J. Farman, of 518 East Windsor Road, who left yesterday for Kansas City, to be gone several weeks, and Miss Violet Bird of 406 West Oak street, who left yesterday for a visit with relatives in Salt Lake City.

In addition to three homes now under construction in Rossmoyne we started construction this week for our first residence in the "Ellipse," which will be one of the finest in Glendale.

With 8 rooms and 3 baths, as shown above, finished in "Flemish Architecture," and built to fit the natural contours for the 100-ft. lot, it will demand the unqualified admiration of everybody.

With a Living Room 19x27, and a Dining Room 12x19, and Bedrooms 13x15, 13x16 and 12x15, and Maid's Room and Bath 19x13, nothing has been spared to make this home exclusive and impressive.

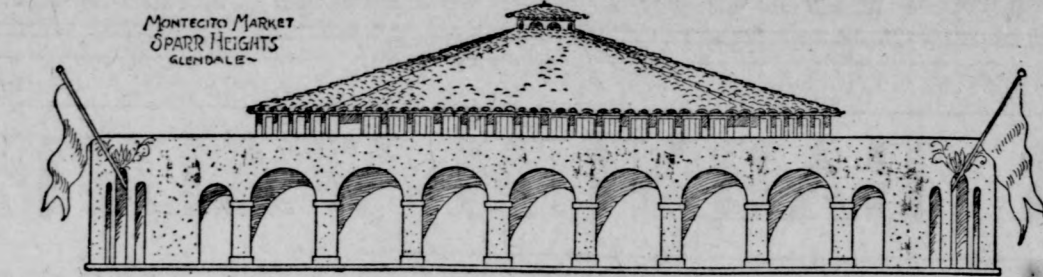

Glendale has been crying for such homes in the past. Here is the first of 20 such exclusive homes, which we contemplate building in Rossmoyne. All our plans and specifications are open for your inspection in our office.

Attractive Spanish Style Market

Foundations have been put in for an attractive Spanish style market building for Sparr Heights. The first story will be devoted to markets and stores and the second floor will be used as a cafe-ballroom. It will be a fine addition to the subdivision, it is predicted.

and-mouth epidemic which prevented taking prospects out to the property, there has been no cessation in the great development work going ahead at Sparr Heights.

Construction Continues
Building construction, grading, excavating, laying gas and water mains, building thousands of feet of retaining walls, sidewalks and curbs have been pushed forward with almost the same speed as in an active sales season. In fact, from $2000 to $3200 has been spent every week on labor, exclusive of materials, and the cement cost alone has run up to $4500 monthly. More mechanics and laborers are being added to the force daily.

As a result, prospects who have been holding off for better times are now inspired with utmost confidence in the Barnum-Walters subdivision, and business has shown a substantial increase with more sales every week. One deal now practically closed with a Kansas man runs into $32,000.

In addition to many new homes, which have been erected in the past few months, foundations have been put in for the handsome new Montecito market, a business structure in pure Spanish style.

Attractive Building
It is a two-story building, triangular in shape, 117x107x109 feet. The first story will be devoted to market and stores, and have modern public comfort stations for motorists and shoppers. The second floor will be used for a cafe-ballroom, surrounded by a broad balcony on all sides and reached from the outside by winding stairways. Besides other material for the tile roof and stucco finish, 124,000 feet will be used in its construction.

A large number of new houses have been built in the bungalow section since last spring, including a two-story, $14,000 home at Broadview and Highland; a bungalow at Rosemont and Broadview, a duplex bungalow on Sierra Vista, three each on San Benito, Buena Vista and Grand View, and one on Broadview.

Now under construction, and nearly completed, are the Hall residence at Arbolito and Montecito drive, costing about $15,000; the $20,000 Gardena home on Sparr boulevard and Menlo drive, and another striking new house costing about $18,000 on Vista Delmar. Besides these, work on the palatial Walters hillside home, one of the most picturesque of the castle type in Southern California, is being rushed to completion.

Gas Station Opens
A new gas station has been opened at Ocean View and Broadview and a two-story store building is to be started at once at Ocean View and Sunset. On Monday additional road work will be started full force, and a drilling machine will be used to speed up work on pipe lines. Sewer pipe will be laid so that it will not be necessary to disturb the fine five-inch concrete pavement. Ocean View has already been paved between Honolulu and Montrose avenue, making an uninterrupted thoroughfare on through to Michigan boulevard, and eliminating a rough detour to the county road. Since completion of this link business frontage on Ocean View has commanded a substantial advance, and already a number of new business structures are in prospect.

Both sides of the car track will be paved from Honolulu to Canaan at once on Sparr boulevard. All hillside roads and streets have been protected with concrete retaining walls, some of them four feet high. Some artistic rock bridgework has been put in by George Harris, well-known for his skill in this line, and giving the mainly picturesque effect of the English countryside.

Record Activity
Sparr Heights has, indeed, made an exceptional record in the activity carried on all through the summer. The fall season has opened auspiciously with a gratifying number of sales, and the appointment of A. M. Morrison, formerly in charge of the Barnum-Walters Hollywood office, as general sales manager has greatly stimulated the well-organized sales force, resulting in an earlier season than was anticipated.

"The public should bear in mind that property values are steadily advancing, contrary to the impression in some quarters," said Mr. Barnum, "and we are pleased to report that very gratifying turnover profits have been made in resales in Sparr Heights. In fact, one lot owner refused a cash offer of $3250 for a lot which a few months before cost $2000.

About the same time we declined an offer on a hilltop lot because we did not feel that the type of architecture in the $85,000 improvement proposed would be in harmony with the surroundings."

EDITORIAL

The Y. M. C. A. Project

In considering the importance and right to priority of the Y. M. C. A. building campaign upon which Glendale is just entering, it should be borne in mind that the initiative is our own. It is a movement coming from within, not brought to us from without.

For years there has been a strong feeling among a number of our citizens that Glendale was not doing its full duty by its boys and young men. All about us and all over the country cities of the size and wealth of Glendale—and many much smaller and with less wealth—have been providing adequate and attractive buildings and equipment for Y. M. C. A. work. Whenever the question has been broached in Glendale there has been encountered the objection "this is not an opportune time," and at last experience has taught those who feel a deep responsibility in this matter that if they permit themselves to be side-tracked by that objection, Glendale will never have a Y. M. C. A. building. There will always be some reason why "this is not an opportune time," and there will always be some people for whom whatever time may be selected will not be opportune. This is not said censoriously or sarcastically at all. It is a simple fact that any time would be and will be inopportune for somebody or some interests, some class or segment of the community.

It is for that reason and the apparent need for what the modern Y. M. C. A. facilities supply that more than two hundred of our business and professional men have signified their willingness to undertake a campaign for the required funds at this time.

The men who have set their hands to this plow in this matter, and who do not mean to turn back, or even look back, are not a bunch of impractical, impetuous, moral idealists. They are all men of practical affairs, most of them careful, conservative business men. They are not giving their time and money to this cause for any personal benefit or advantage, not even merely out of civic pride and public spirit. They are imbued with a deep sense of moral obligation. And they are not asking others to do what they will not do themselves, for all of them will be liberal contributors to the fund, some of them large contributors, of sums running into thousands of dollars. Already one of the Y. M. C. A. committee of eight has made a pledge of $5000.

The work of the Y. M. C. A. is recognized everywhere by hard-headed practical business men as of tremendous social and economic value—physical, moral and spiritual. Since the close of the war more than $40,000,000 has been raised for new and enlarged Y. M. C. A. projects. Right here in Southern California—at our own door, so to speak—in the past three years, Pomona has built a Y. M. C. A. plant costing $254,000; in 1921 the new building and equipment at Long Beach costing $344,500 was opened in 1922 and Santa Ana dedicated a Y. M. C. A. building costing $270,000 this year. The entire amount in each instance was raised in advance and the buildings dedicated without any unprovided-for indebtedness.

Such sums of money are not voluntarily invested by popular subscriptions in projects of doubtful beneficence or even of secondary importance; they are at the command only of enterprises of the greatest moral and material value.

Show Great Interest In Sites for Cabins

That Glendaleans are greatly interested in the Frazier Mountain Park cabin sites, which are to be put on the market soon, is evidenced by the number of persons who are coming into the offices of Twining & Myers, 108 West Broadway, to inquire about the date of the opening and prices of the sites.

Since The Glendale Evening News announced the forming of the Frazier Mountain Park & Fisheries Co. more than 100 persons have reserved sites. The plan of sale, according to W. L. Twining, vice-president of the company, is that the first unit shall sell for $100, the second for $150 and so on until all units are sold. A satisfactory site is guaranteed, and Mr. Twining declared that if one were not satisfied with the location in the first unit he would be allowed to select a site in the second.

Plans are being laid and development work started to make four lakes, and a stream for good fishing. A fee of $3 per year will be charged for fishing privileges. The lakes will be stocked from the company's own hatcheries with trout, bass and perch.

The tract acquired by the company lies on the north slope of Frazier Mountain, eighty miles from Glendale, most of the way over paved roads. Contrary to the usual custom of acquiring cabin sites in and along canyons,

Mr. Twining says this tract lies on a stretch of meadow land almost six miles in length, and it is in one of the prettiest little valleys in Southern California. The Alsace-Lorraine railway, owned by the French government, now has a total length of 1386 miles and operates 1791 locomotives and 3543 passenger coaches.

Highway Finances Offer Problem to Next Legislature

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Unless some plan of state finance is provided by the forthcoming legislature for prosecution of state highway building, activities in this line will come to a complete cessation, according to W. T. Sesnon, president of the California State Automobile Association.

With 2790 miles of state highway yet unimproved, the $73,000,000 provided in the several bond issues, is definitely obligated.

The present state highway system covers 6480 miles, of which 2085 miles have been paved by the state, 364 by counties, and 1241 miles have been graded and gravelled by the state or by the federal government in aid of forest road projects, leaving a balance of 2790 miles unimproved.

Tujunga C. C. Hears Committees Reports

TUJUNGA, Sept. 13.—Judge H. H. Breidt presided at the Chamber of Commerce meeting for the first time since his election to fill the vacancy of the presidential chair brought about by the resignation of L. H. Fisher.

Reports made at the chamber meeting included one by Harry Zachau, chairman of the road committee, to the effect that representatives of the county surveyor's office will be sent to Tujunga within the next few days to inspect the proposed extension of Monte Vista boulevard into Big Tujunga canyon to join the canyon road. Chairman Conway of the publicity committee reported the purchase of 500 aluminum auto license plates bearing the word "Tujunga," which are to be distributed to members of the chamber free and to others at 15 cents each. A report was made that there is but $8 in the treasury, due to a deficit in the entertainment fund, occasioned by guaranteeing $100 to the ladies who served a supper to the meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce last month and the small sale of but fifty-eight tickets.

Several warning signs have been placed on the streets of Tujunga by the Southern California Auto club, according to a report by Mr. Zachau, who stated that the club will furnish street intersection buttons and place them for $5 each. It is proposed to place buttons at the intersection of Sunset and Michigan, Pine and

CRESCENTA NOTES

LA CRESCENTA, Sept. 13.—With an attendance of fifty pupils at their Sabbath school, the Seventh-Day Adventists expect to establish a day school for their children in the new church which is being built on South Rosemont avenue. No teacher has yet been engaged for the school, which, it is hoped, can be begun about October 1, when the church structure will be completed. Work on the church has been contributed by the members of the congregation and is rapidly advancing to the finished stage. Regular church services will be held in the new building. Until that time the large tent on Honolulu avenue will be used for this purpose and also for the Sabbath school, Rev. Schaefer having charge of the services until such time as a regular minister is appointed to serve this district.

The new subdivision being put on the market by Mark Collins on Montrose avenue has been cleared preparatory to laying out the lots and laying the foundation of the modern houses to be erected on this tract.

A. E. Bacon, adjutant of the Verdugo Hills post of the American Legion No. 288 has had a signal honor conferred upon him when Gail Stafford, commander of the county council to welcome the world flyers on their arrival at Clover field, appointed him to Michigan and Sunset and El Centro streets.

A report by Mr. Conway was that the auction of the fruit and other products exhibited during the Moon Festival two weeks ago had netted the sum of $24.10.

Mayor Robinson Will Be Sunland's Guest

SUNLAND, Sept. 13.—Mayor Spencer Robinson of Glendale has been invited to be the guest of honor Monday night at a meeting of the Tujunga valley roundtable under the auspices of the Sunland Chamber of Commerce at the Monte Vista school house. A committee was appointed to extend the invitation to Mr. Robinson and any vocalists he might desire to take with him to participate in a community sing. Sunland plans to form a community chorus for regular sings in the future.

represent the Verdugo Hills post. The committee of the Verdugo City Association of Commerce held a business meeting last night to discuss plans for the coming winter season, which will be a busy one in the valley.

Mrs. G. Swanson of West Honolulu avenue, with her children, Donald and Dorothy, has returned from a visit spent in Perris, Eagle Rock and other points.

Wallace Tupper of the Anderson Tupper Ford dealers of Montrose, is an ardent devotee of the great sport of fishing and has just returned from a hunting and fishing trip spent in the borders of Mexico. The party, which consisted of Jesse Smith and Mr. Wilson of Glendale, were guests of John Hussong, Ensenada capitalist.

Mrs. C. W. Angier, president of the P-T. A., is recovering from her recent serious illness and hopes to be able to take up her gavel in the interests of the P-T. A. on the date of the first meeting.

$360,000 Already SPENT On Improvements!

Money talks—and when it talks in these terms it is convincing. It is the best argument we can put up that Sparr Heights is splendid property.

All through the long summer we have kept up the work on improvements at the cost of thousands of dollars weekly. We did it cheerfully, because we knew it was the very best investment we could make.

Final Paving Operations Begun

Early this week the contractor started final work on pavements in Units No. 1 and No. 2, including Montrose and Ocean View. Pavement on the latter is completed between Michigan Blvd. on the north to Sunset Drive, and within a few days will be complete to its connection with Verdugo Road, thus eliminating a considerable detour. In addition to all this, thousands of feet of pavement, curbs, sidewalks and retaining walls have been built. On the main highways sewer pipe will be laid so that the substantial, 5-inch concrete paving need never be disturbed.

A Quarter Million Dollars in Residence Construction

Twenty-two new homes have been completed at an approximate cost of $119,000. Others now under construction will total upwards of $107,000. Bear in mind that all this building was begun or completed during the dullest season! Total buildings completed in Sparr Heights approximate $500,000.

Montecito Market Building

One of the finest market buildings in the Southland is now well under way. This is a two-story Spanish structure with cafe-ballroom surrounded by a broad balcony on the second floor, with market and stores on the ground floor. Fully 124,000 ft. of lumber will be used in its construction.

New Activity in Resales

The public should know that, contrary to impression in some quarters, real estate values are steadily advancing. Turnover profits have been gratifying to Sparr Heights buyers. In one instance a lot owner refused a cash offer of $3250 for a lot which, a few months before, cost $2000.

Unquestionably Now is the time to make your selection of a lot for residence or investment. Property values emphatically never will be lower at Sparr Heights, when the combined influences of hoof-and-mouth epidemic and nation-wide depression failed to force them down. We will be glad to call for you on appointment, or you will find it an agreeable drive. From Glendale go up Verdugo Road to Sparr Heights Community House, only five minutes north of Glendale.

Consider these facts

Sparr Heights is only 25 minutes from the heart of Los Angeles.

Verdugo Road, the only outlet through Glendale to Los Angeles for Montrose, La Canada, La Crescenta, Tujunga, Sunland and Alta Canada, winds through the heart of Sparr Heights.

The handsome Community Building, now complete, will be available to all residents for dances and theatricals in the great ballroom.

Fog is a rarity, asthma and kindred troubles are unknown and the valley is perpetually flooded with sunlight.

Glendale school board has already purchased a school center of 4½ acres to build a fine grammar school.

The Oakmont Country Club with its fine clubhouse, mammoth swimming pool and 18-hole golf course covering 115 acres is in the very center of the tract.

Diet And Health

By LULU HUNT PETERS, M. D.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

Mrs. G.—If you ate as few calories as you say you did, and if you counted correctly, I should judge you have some trouble with the glands of internal secretion and will need medication before you will reduce. (This is a poor condition. I suspect you are poor in mathematics.) Ring up the County Medical Society and ask them to refer you to an internist; that is, one who specializes in diagnosing and treating diseases of the body that do not require surgery.

PRURITIS (ITCHING)

In some cases of intense itching of the external genitalia, with germ that are always present in the lower bowel are the offenders. After each bowel evacuation, bathe the parts with very hot water containing an antiseptic such as a small teaspoonful of lysol to the quart of water, followed by an application of antiseptic lotions which stay on, such as boric acid and carbolic acid ointments, etc. In some cases of pruritis, the X-Ray or some of the therapeutic light treatments are effective. Have a thorough physical examination, including an urinalysis.

CRIMINALS AND DEFECTIVES

Do you know that one person out of every one hundred of the population of the United States is either a defective or a criminal? If those we have no records of were included, the proportion must be greater than one in every one hundred. This is according to the reports just issued by the United States Public Health Service.

This proportion of approximately one in every hundred is computed from the fact that there are approximately 900,000 ($73,673) persons confined in institutions—Federal, city, county, state, private—for defectives, criminals, juvenile delinquents, in hospitals for mental diseases, institutions for feeble-minded and epileptics, penal institutions, etc., and as the population of the United States is approximately 110,000,000, this makes approximately one out of every one hundred.

The Public Health report gives no corresponding figures for former periods, so whether there is an increase or a decrease in criminals and defectives, cannot be determined from these figures. In an editorial on this subject in the American Medical Journal, the following thoughts are brought out. Is the strain of modern civilization tending to the limit of human endurance or is the human organism deteriorating? Does not the fact that there are 29,343 children in institutions for juvenile delinquency show that reconstruction must be begun in the plastic period of childhood? Is it not advisable, as suggested by Dr. A. Pussey in his presidential address to the American Medical Association, to pay more attention to the character of the stock from which the future citizens are to come? Does this not mean that sooner or later we will have some form of practical eugenics?

CALLUS HEELS

Mrs. L. wants to know what to do to remove some hard skin which forms on her heels. It is not painful. Frequent bathing does not remove it.

These callous spots are caused by shoes that do not fit you around the heels, Mrs. L. The following corn prescription will relieve it:

Salicylic acid—1 dram (about a level teaspoonful). Flexible collodion—1 ounce. Soak the feet before applying and then apply the solution night and morning for three to six days; then soak in hot water softened with soda, a teaspoonful to the quart, and the corn or callous spot can usually be gently pulled off.

Mrs. S.—See an obstetrician (maternity doctor) immediately. Send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for diet during pregnancy and nursing.

My Dear Followers:—When sending for material which we offer you please remember to enclose a stamped envelope bearing your full name and address. The pamphlet will be answered in the column as they come in. Make them as brief as possible, not over 200 words, and type or write them legibly with ink. Please sign your name as evidence of good faith—we will not use it in any way. Remember that we are unable for you to make a diagnosis for you or to answer you personally. I appreciate your sending me the beautiful letters you send me and regret it is impossible to give you individual advice. The questions you ask will be answered in the column as they come in. If you are of general interest, if you expect me to send you the information I have offered.

Meets With Board

Mrs. Charles H. Toll of Glendale, president of the Los Angeles District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, met her executive board in Los Angeles this morning.

In the district work this year, Mrs. Toll has inaugurated the committee idea. Each of the thirty or more chairmen listed under the seven main departments of endeavor, have been privileged to name a committee of three to assist her, thus dividing the labor, while multiplying the interest. ## Chats On Beauty

By EDNA KENT FORBES

KEEP YOUR FIGURE

The American woman, noted for her grace and athletic slenderness when young, is also noted for the way she "goes off" when she marries, rears a family and settles into comfortable middle age. Now no woman need look it. "Old" is no more a social day, though she can push that fatal day far down the years. But the deadly middle state of round shoulders and large stomach, of dull colored hair and skin with brown blotches, she can avoid.

The first thing to watch is the figure. If you have any tendency toward fat, be doubly careful. A naturally thin woman, with the help of a decent corset, can keep her young lines 20 years longer than a naturally chubby one. But even she will have to exercise, lest age give her hunched shoulders and unsightly, flabby arms.

If you've had children, beware of the fat that settles around the waist and the abdomen. Take this exercise:
Lie on your back, on the bed or the floor, draw one knee up to your chest, raise the leg straight in the air and very slowly lower it. Repeat six times, and after some weeks, ten times. Repeat with the other leg, and then with both legs together. That's the hard part: it takes a long time to lower both legs gradually, not to drop them weakly. But it's wonderful for making the abdomen flat and keeping the waist within bounds. And never forget one simple exercise for keeping your whole figure trim, that of bending over to touch the floor with the finger tips, without bending the knees. This is most valuable and is very easy to do. Repeat ten times daily.

Practice arm and deep breathing exercises, too, and you'll be pleased with the improvement in your health and your figure, noticeable within a month.

Too Thin:—The pores will only absorb just so much so you do not gain anything by leaving an extra amount of cocoa butter on the skin after you stop massaging. A small dust is not objectionable, especially in the fall when the air is dry. The boyish figure, if you are below normal weight drink a quart of milk each day, one pint taken hot before retiring.

C. M. F.—Bleach the superfluous hair with peroxide. To reduce hips and back, lie flat on floor, with legs close together and arms straight up over the head. Roll completely over a number of times, and then reverse direction often enough not to get dizzy.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department will be answered in these columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, a stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

By Southland News Service.

Southern California has forty-three new American citizens today, that number being naturalized yesterday by Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick.

Proposals to install trundlers in the Second street tunnel for the accommodation of pedestrians have been made to the city council.

Supervisor McClellan, commenting on a new bridge over Los Angeles river at Glendale boulevard, is reported favorable to the project.

Colonel F. H. Fowler, golf player at 62, miraculously escaped death yesterday when his car jumped over a 15-foot cliff in Griffith park.

Smiths of the city will meet Thursday night next week to consider plans for greeting Lieut. Lowell H. Smith, commander of the world flight.

Los Angeles councilmen will see all circuses hereafter. They have assumed the prerogative to grant permits for parades which mean tickets.

Weekly Newspaper Is Planned for East Side

Action looking to the establishment of a weekly newspaper that will be devoted to the interests of the Glendale and eastern side of Glendale in general will be taken at a meeting to be held in the offices of the Ingledue Realty Co., 109 South Glendale avenue, at 3 o'clock on Tuesday, September 16, according to statements made today.

The proposal that a newspaper devoted to the interests of the east side be published was first made, it is said, in definite form at a meeting that was held in the Ingledue Realty Co. offices on Thursday, September 11. At that meeting there were about twenty men present who are interested in the development of the east side. The plans for the new publication will, it is believed, reach a definite status at Tuesday's meeting.

Another matter that is to come up for consideration at Tuesday's meeting is that of the proposed bond issues that are to be voted on at the special election on September 30, and at this time the attitude of the residents of the east side of Glendale will be determined, especially with regard to those issues that may not be considered vital at this time to the development of Glendale.

Aged Man Struck by Pacific Electric Car

death when he was knocked down and rolled for a distance of twelve feet under the front end of the car before it could be brought to a stop by Motorman Charles Gaskin. Conductor R. B. McGinty was in charge of the car.

Mr. Maxwell's injuries, it was revealed, consisted of lacerations on the left hand and a number of bruises, and he was able, as soon as the car was halted and he had been dragged out from beneath it, to proceed to the office of the Pacific Electric, where the company's surgeon, Dr. R. M. Farnham, 1007 South San Fernando road, was summoned to dress his injuries and to render first aid.

According to a statement of Officer McGuire, on duty at Brand boulevard and Broadway, Mr. Maxwell was crossing Brand boulevard from east to west when the car, rounding the turn into Brand boulevard to connect with the south-bound car, and with its tender raised to permit the train crew to make the connections struck him, knocking him down and dragging him along the road, and had it not been for the prompt action of Motorman Gaskin in halting the car, which was traveling at a slow rate of speed, it is declared that the victim would have been in grave danger of losing his life.

City Gets Publicity In Magazine Issue

The October issue of Homecraft, a magazine devoted to the development of southern California, specializes on Glendale, with an article on the city's growth, business and social conditions written by Howard I. Wood, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and with a picture on the front cover in colors showing one of the most imposing mansions in the city.

Groups of photographs that are published in the magazine show several Glendale churches, the Tuesday afternoon club, the Elks clubhouse, and two views of Oakmont Country club, and a number of Glendale's most attractive homes, while the two middle pages are given over to panoramic views of the city and of the Broadway high school with the pupils massed in front of it.

Five hundred copies of the magazine have been turned over to the Chamber of Commerce for free distribution, and the thousands of other copies embraced in the circulation list will be distributed largely in southern California, with a large number of them going to other states. The special Glendale pages in Homecraft were published without any expense to the city or to any of its organizations.

Jewel City Dancing Club Plans Carnival

The Jewel City Dancing club will entertain on Saturday night, September 20, with a carnival dance in the I. O. O. F. hall on West Broadway. The affair will be the first of a series of Saturday night dances to be given by the club. The music will be furnished by Kelly's Shrine club orchestra. An invitation is extended to all members of the club and their friends to attend.

CHAPTER LI

Once in bed, she decided to think. But almost immediately, smiling, she was asleep, and, as happy people do, she slept all night like an infant, hardly stirring until the late winter sunshine, and Alice with fire-wood, were both noiselessly entering the room.

What was pleasant—what was pleasant—thought the awakening Hilary, turning and smiling sleepily. Oh, yes—oh, yes, she remembered it all, and with the flood of recollection, a flood of brilliant color suffused her.

She got up in that dreamy, mystic state known only to the woman in love. Her bath, her powders and perfumes, were all a sort of happy rite this morning, because a man had found her lovely. She looked at Alice, hanging the black-and-silver gown away in its closet, and she remembered the robe that had shared with her this wonderful hour.

The future concerned Hilary not at all; she knew that she would hear from Konrad this morning. Her whole existence was centered on the moment when flowers, a note, or even the man himself should arrive.

She had been out so late that the kindly Alice brought her breakfast upstairs at ten o'clock; Hilary looked sharply at the tray. Letters—but not the letter.

A film of doubt came over her radiant mood; she stopped eating, and it seemed for a few chilled seconds as if her heart stopped, too.

Could he—but it was not possible that he could have been disgusted—have been shocked at her last night?

Swift upon this thought came another even more disquieting; he had meant nothing by his kiss, men never did—he had kissed other women, scores of women; men were doing it everywhere, every night of the world, and nothing further came of it!

Hilary pushed her breakfast aside; food choked her. She got to her feet, trailed slowly to the window in her thin silk wrapper, and stood looking vacantly down at the frosty, sunshiny street, her mind awash.

"Nothing—why should he? Kissing a woman—he probably kisses scores! So that's that. Except that I am silly enough, to have taken it seriously—glorifying in that! It was the music, or the dress—"

"No, it wasn't. It was Konrad! Well, I have got it at last, Butterfly. There's no mistaking this. Oh, it can't be—it can't be that after all my talk about being his sister and his mother—I can't have fallen in love with him!"

She was silent, looking out, hugging the thin silk wrapper tightly about her.

That's it. I love him! she said, clearly and softly, aloud.

Then for a long time she was silent, while shame and fear had their way with her.

"I forced myself upon him. He didn't want me to come and take care of his papers. I insisted. I laughed at his objections—oh, where were my decency and common sense and dignity! I forced myself in, and I laughed about it, boasted about it to everyone—oh, my God, what shall I do! I can't live and have him know—have everybody know—that I was falling in love with him! They knew it—Violet knew it when she asked me not to tell them about Santa Claus!"

"I'm just like all the rest; falling in love with him—I'm just like Butterfly—poor Butterfly!"

She went to her dressing table, loosened her hair.

"But I can't stand this!" Hilary said, frightened at the pain that was torturing her. "Can this be falling in love. I can't bear it—it is—"

"He didn't make love to me last night," she remembered, with a wave of actual sickness. "All he said was that in spite of my motherly pose I was just like the others—"

As the full misery of remembering just what he had said, and of her own surrender to his masterful kisses, she felt that she only wanted to die.

With every second some fresh stinging memory appalled her. Now it was Butterfly hinting delicately: "We are not relations of his, after all, Sis!" Now it was a recollection of Violet's sneering smile, Hilary, in a fever of humiliation and shame, walked the floor, hating her stupid brain, hating her blind soul, and above all hating the treacherous body that had seemed to her so beautiful last night!

If she went out, she might miss him. He might be coming—but he usually slept until almost noon. She looked at the telephone; it required an actual physical effort to keep her hand from touching it, her voice from asking for his number. He was only a few squares away, in one moment she might hear the rich, pleasant voice: "Well, what do

"The Mad Honeymoon," a lively farce-melodrama from the pen of Barry Connors, author of many Broadway hits, opens Sunday night at the tent theatre of Mahurin's Players (Murphy's Comedians), corner of Central avenue and Stocker street, Casa Verdugo, announces J. A. Menard, manager, who states that the play was a recent offering at the Playhouse, New York city, where it was produced by William A. Brady.

"The Mad Honeymoon" will provide every member of the company with a splendid part. The story has to do with the disappearance of $30,000 in record bonds, which are sewed in the lining of a coonskin overcoat. The coat is planted upon a reformed convict, now an honest chauffeur, whose employer's daughter is to elope at midnight. To prevent this a faithful housekeeper hides the heroine's clothes while she is in the bath, and she, having only a suit of pajamas, elopes with the coonskin overcoat thrown over her lacy attire.

Many exciting as well as tremendously amusing situations develop in rapid order, and there is not a moment in the play in which the audience is not kept at a high pitch of excitement and laughter. "Not So Fast," which has been making a hit all week, shows tonight for the last time. Mr. Menard states. The curtain rises promptly at 8 o'clock tonight and every night.

Uncle Wiggily

By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY'S LETTER

Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy was going away for a few days to see her sister, who was forelady muskrat in a clothespin factory, where she gnawed the long slit in the pith that looks it on the line.

"And while I am gone, Uncle Wiggily," said Nurse Jane as she packed her bag and looked to see if her best umbrella had any holes in it, "while I'm away I want you to write me a letter."

"Write you a letter—when you aren't going to be gone more than three days!" cried the bunny gentleman, twinkling his pink nose.

"What's the idea?"

"Oh, it's so jolly to get letters when you're away!" laughed Nurse Jane.

"All right—anything to be kind," agreed Mr. Longears. "But what in the world can I write about? Nothing much can happen here in the three or four days you will be gone about my goldfish and my rubber plant," said Nurse Jane. "I shall be very lonesome without them. You can write me a letter and tell me all about them."

"Oh, very well," said Uncle Wiggily with a sigh, for he wasn't very keen on writing letters. "I'll tell you all about the goldfish and the rubber plant."

With a happy sigh of content Nurse Jane finished her packing and soon she took the jitney bus to see her sister, who, as I have told you, was a forelady in a cheese factory, where she fastened the heads on pins and wiped tears from the eyes of needles.

What's that? I said before that Nurse Jane's cousin worked in a clothespin factory? Well, so she did three days in the week. The rest of the time she spent in the cheese works. Anyhow, Nurse Jane went away and, for a time, Uncle Wiggily hopped about as he pleased, leaving all the dirty dishes in the sink.

And then, about the end of the week, the bunny gave a jump and cried:

"Nurse Jane's letter! I forgot all about writing her how the goldfish played tag with the rubber plant. I must get the ink and write now."

But when Uncle Wiggily went to look for the ink he couldn't find any. The reason was that Nurse Jane had taken it to blacken her shoes when she went away.

"No matter," spoke the bunny gentleman. "Near the back door are growing some late red raspberries. I'll crush some of them in a cup and write with their juice. Red raspberry juice will make pretty red ink."

So the bunny made himself some red berry juice for ink, and, sitting at the table he began to write Nurse Jane a jolly little letter about her rubber plant and goldfish.

But all of a sudden, as the bunny was trying to spell the word "forty," without getting the letter "u" in it, suddenly he heard a noise at the back door. At first he thought it was Nurse Jane coming home ahead of time. But, taking another look, Uncle Wiggily saw the Bushy Bear slipping in.

"I've come to get you!" growled the Bear.

"I didn't invite you!" said the brave bunny. Then, taking his cup full of red raspberry juice, he threw it at the bear. The red juice splattered all over the bad

Trade In Sale Helps Volume of Business

A new departure of intensified jewelry selling is the R. L. Cole trade in sale which has been running for the past week. Many new models of watches, rings, and novelty pieces of jewelry are being shown at this jewelry store at 106 East Broadway. Many Glendaleans have taken advantage of Mr. Cole's offer to trade in their old or worn-out watches for new ones, the watches that they traded in being their first payment and the balance due to be paid in small installments each week or month to suit the convenience of the patron.

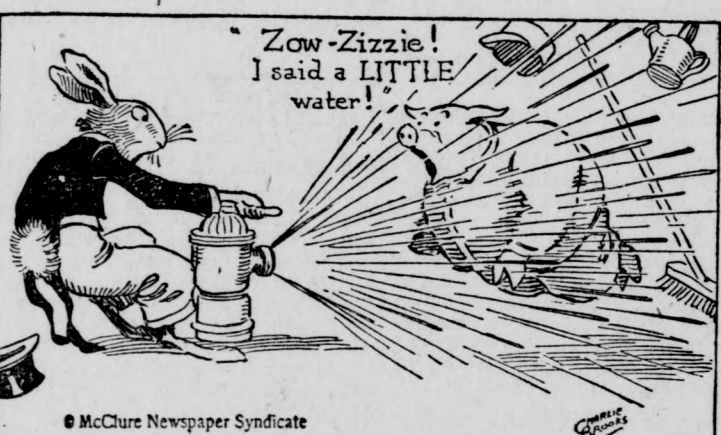

Mr. Cole has installed a large watch suspended above the street in front of his store and this he says will make a very suitable sign and let newcomers to Glendale know they can find a jeweler just a half block off Brand boulevard on East Broadway.

GIANTS IN LEAD BY SINGLE POINT

Brooklyn Presses New York And Pirates Are Right In Their Rear

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The outcome of the National league race appeared to be very much in the wood today with the Giants leading Brooklyn by a solitary point and the Pirates only two and a half games in the rear.

The champions found the Cardinals tough pickings. American league pennant contenders were idle today. The Senators lead the Yankees by one game.

The Giants couldn't turn their hits into runs, and lost to the Cards, 5 to 1. New York leads Brooklyn by only one point.

Earl Smith's homer in the eighth enabled the Pirates to trim the Braves, 5 to 4, and move up to within two games and a half of the league leaders.

The Cubs took a slugging frolic from the Phillies by scoring four runs in the ninth. Cy Williams cracked out two homers, a triple and two singles, but made costly errors in the field. Score: Chicago 10, Williams 8.

Urban Shocker's cut plug delivery tied the Cleveland batters in to knots, and the Browns won, 5 to 0.

Peter Hanson Easily Wins Golf Contest

The challenge golf match between Peter Hanson and J. E. Galvin, to see which should stand the best chance of representing the Glendale Realty board at the contests that are to be held when the state realtors meet in Pasadena in October, was held at Oakmont Country club links yesterday afternoon. The match was originally scheduled for eighteen holes, but when Hanson had scored a lead of 7 up and 6 to go over Galvin, the latter admitted that the game might as well be called off.

Attendance at Coast League Games Record

Contestants to Tell Glories of Glendale

Everyone in Glendale is urged to attend the meeting to be held in the Harvard street High school Thursday night, September 18, at 8 o'clock, when the contest for the honor of representing Glendale at the convention of the California Real Estate Association in Pasadena in October will be held under the auspices of the Glendale Realty Board.

"Apart from any interest that attaches to the holding of the Home Town contest, to decide who shall represent Glendale at the state convention of the realtors," says W. S. Kirk, chairman of the committee in charge of the competition, "everyone in Glendale should turn out and learn some facts about their own city that many of them are ignorant of."

"How many residents of the city know the facts and figures that are the indication of Glendale's progress? Do they know the number of churches, the resources of the banks, the manufacturing plants, the details of our school system and the number of the statistics that show Glendale's leadership among the cities of this state?"

Each address will be limited to five minutes.

More toys are sold in cities of 25,000 or less population than in larger places and a greater number of games and puzzles are used of the statistics that show Glendale's leadership among the cities of this state.

While the summer in San Francisco has not been as dry as here, it has been very cold, reports Elder R. W. Munson, who returned yesterday with Mrs. Munson to their home at 704 East Chestnut street, after two months spent at San Anselmo, across the bay from the northern metropolis, visiting their daughter, Mrs. E. C. Brown, who has been very ill, but is now on the road to recovery.

"We actually had the furnace going several days during our stay," he says, "and the gray morning fogs that blew in across the Golden Gate made the warmth feel very welcome. San Francisco is interesting, but Los Angeles, and particularly Glendale, is home. We are glad to be back."

Sanitarium Chaplain

Elder Munson is known and loved by all Seventh-Day Adventists as chaplain of the Glendale sanitarium, a position he has held since 1917. During his absence his duties were performed by an old friend, Elder G. B. Starr, formerly chaplain at the Loma Linda sanitarium.

While in the north Elder and Mrs. Munson visited the St. Helena sanitarium, where he was chaplain from 1913 to 1917. They enjoyed their stay at San Anselmo, where he gave lectures at the Presbyterian church and taught the children in Bible class.

Many Motor Trips

They enjoyed many delightful motor trips, going to San Francisco, Stinson beach and Santa Rosa, the home of the famous Luther Burbank, plant wizard. Everywhere they delighted in the beautiful redwoods, which seem to grow in circular clumps like some giant "fairy ring."

Elder Munson reports seeing many disastrous forest fires, most spectacular of which was that on Mount Tamalpais, which stood out at night like some mighty sign in the sky.

ABOARD THE CALIFORNIA

LEGION SPECIAL TO ST. PAUL,

Sept. 13.—The activities today of the California's delegates, en route from Los Angeles and San Francisco to St. Paul, where the sixth annual national convention of the American Legion and aux iliary will start Monday morning, consisted chiefly in viewing the scenery of Southern Wyoming and

Nebraska, looking the long line waiting to get into the train car at meal times, and talking about the days before and after the signing of the armistice.

Impromptu reunions are being staged aboard the special train, and have been the means of bring ing together men who fought on the same line in France during 1918, or who had visited the same quaint French towns when on one of the hard-to-get leaves handed out by the officers after the armistice.

Everybody remains in a joyful mood and no attempt has been made as yet to solve that perplexing question—"Who Won the War?"

Plan Receptions

Receptions will be held for the California delegates tonight in

Omaha and at Council Bluffs,

Iowa. Hanford McNider, past national commander who was elected at the Kansas City con vention, lives in Council Bluffs, and he is expected to be on hand when the special train reaches that city.

Numerous quartets have been organized, tried out and disband ed, either at the suggestion of the audience, or through lack of proper support. A number of ac complished musicians are aboard

the special train, and it is not un usual to hear strains of "Mademo iselle from Armisties" come floating through the long string of coaches, to be followed by many of the songs of war days.

From Council Bluffs the spe cial train will proceed over the

Chicago Great Western lines to St. Paul tonight, reaching the convention city about 8 or 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Showing New Studebakers

Three new models that the company has just received as an advance on the new line put out by Studebaker were put on display this afternoon in Glendale by the PACKER MOTOR CO., 245 South Brand. Below are shown the new Studebaker Big Six Duplex Phaeton, in the center is the new Studebaker Standard Six Five-Passenger Duplex Phaeton, and below it is the new Studebaker Special Six Duplex Phaeton. A special formal showing will be held Monday night.

The New Studebaker Big Six DUPLEX-PHAETON

The New Studebaker Standard Six Five-Passenger Duplex Phaeton

The New Studebaker Special Six DUPLEX-PHAETON

"It's going to be another Studebaker year—and the biggest in the firm's history."

That was the prediction of Stephen C. Packer, head of the Packer Motor Co., 245 South Brand boulevard, when the shielding curtains were withdrawn at 2 o'clock this afternoon to expose the three new Studebaker models that the firm has received as advance demonstrators of the new line that Studebaker has issued.

The three cars are the Standard Six Duplex phaeton, the Special Six Duplex phaeton and the Big Six Duplex phaeton, and they represent the first cars to reach Glendale out of the fifteen distinctive new body types that the Studebaker plant has produced as part of its history-making line of new cars.

Anxious to See Them

Hints that the new Studebakers were to be announced today has kept men in the automotive industry and motorists generally on the qui vive for several days past, and since it became known that the Packer Motor Co. was to receive three advance styles the offices of the firm have been besieged by people anxious to secure an early view of the cars, but they have been kept carefully under cover until the afternoon, when they were pre-viewed for the benefit of Glendale motorists.

The flag-draped building and the gorgeous masses of summer flowers that decorate the show-rooms of the Packer Motor Co. add materially to the setting for the new models, and the expressions of delight when the doors were first opened and the expectant crowds were admitted testified to the appreciation of the motor-wise to the beauties of design embodied in the cars.

Program Monday Night

A special formal showing will be held on Monday night, when the Famous Singing Four, a widely-known group of musicians, will furnish entertainment for the guests of the Packer Motor Co., and for the rest of the week the cars will be on display in the local agency, with the salesmen on hand every moment the show-rooms are open to book advance orders.

Besides the three cars on display, there are pictures and descriptions of the entire line of fifteen new body styles, and the factories at the Studebaker plants are driving ahead under forced draft to supply the demand for the new models. It is worthy of note that all the new bodies are being built exclusively in the Studebaker body plant that was recently equipped at a cost of $10,000,000.

Each new model of the fifteen is a complete refinement of the previous line. The designs are new, something never before seen on an American automobile, indi cating that Studebaker has again pioneered in its own chosen field.

New Duplex Body

A creation originated by Studebaker, which, it is believed, will supersede the present day open car is the new duplex body. This new Studebaker is an open car which can be converted magically in five seconds into a waterproof, snug and dry closed car of unsurpassing beauty. This new duplex Studebaker body is an outstanding sensation.

This car has unusually beautiful lines, the finest Spanish leather upholstery and an unusual number of equipment features.

Studebaker announces an entirely new Standard Six which takes the place of the former Light Six, and, while it follows mechanically the general design of that car, it has a new and larger motor, the entire car is larger, heavier and much more beautiful and has much more room. Of course the new duplex body entirely supersedes the former open touring car and open roadster bodies, not only in the new Standard Six, but in the other two models, the Special Six and the Big Six.

First With Balloons

Studebaker was among the very first of automobile manufacturers to introduce genuine balloon tires as regular equipment. Instead of the compromise on low pressure cord tires, Studebaker has gone all the way and offered the public big, genuine balloon tires on 20-inch and 21-inch wheels.

Although the new Studebakers are regularly equipped with bigger and better two-wheel brakes than ever and with an entirely new emergency brake which operates on the propeller shaft, there is optional equipment offered in four-wheel brakes.

The new Studebaker, four-wheel brakes are not only of the hydraulic type, but hydraulic power is developed by engine power and not by the driver's foot. Great braking force can be applied instantly and almost without effort by operating a valve which turns on the hydraulic power. The brakes are unique in this respect and different from anything on any other American car. Inasmuch as the braking power instantly stops when the wheels stop turning, the rear wheels cannot remain locked and the front wheels cannot lock at any time. There are no adjustments necessary for the front wheels and only two points which require lubrication.

Notably the engine now is in unit with the clutch and transmission, but even more important than that, a new force feed oiling system has been designed introducing an entirely new feature. The returning oil is strained before it goes back to the crankcase; thus the pump has the entire crank-case supply of oil strained and cleaned. There is no possibility of clogged screens or a lack of supply of oil for the highest speeds.

The entire amount of oil is pumped through the motor three times for every mile of travel under a varying pressure of fifteen to twenty-five pounds, according to the speed.

Women's Club Worker

Is Called by Death

TUJUNGA, Sept. 13.—Friends of Mrs. Adelia D. Wade are shocked to learn of her death at the home of her son in Hollywood where she was being cared for during an illness which was not generally known to be serious.

Few of her Tujunga friends knew of her death until after the funeral had been held last Saturday. Mrs. Wade was one of the best known club women on the Pacific coast, having been an organizer of the Oregon State Federation of Women's clubs and holding honorary offices in several other clubs following her removal to California and Tujunga, several years ago.

Mrs. Wade was honored during the biennial convention this year at Los Angeles by being given a seat with the Oregon delegation as a special delegate. Mrs. Wade was a newspaper writer of ability and followed the craft after her husband died in Oregon. During her stay in Tujunga she was parliamentary for the Tujunga Woman's club.

5—Copies. In making these the scribes exercised the greatest care, counting not only the words but every letter, noting how many times each letter occurred and destroying at once the sheet upon which an error was detected. They had this warning continually before them: "Take heed how thou doest thy work; for thy work is the work of heaven, lest thou drop or add a letter of the manuscript, and so become a destroyer of the word."

6—The first English Bible was translated from the Latin Vulgate by John Wycliffe who was born in the year 1320. It required twenty-two years and the copies sold for about $200. Not many could afford to purchase the whole Bible, but sometimes a man gave as much as a load of hay for the privilege of reading a copy or for the possession of a few pages. "The word of the Lord was precious in those days."

7—The so-called mistakes and contradictions are only alleged. It has been stated by competent scholars that there is a contradiction apparent mistake or contradiction that cannot be satisfactorily answered.

8—The Bible was first divided into chapters in the year 1250 and into verses about 300 years later. The divisions, although very convenient for reference, are not always happily arranged, and are in no sense inspired. (See John 7:53-9:1).

9—The meaning of canonicity. Canon is simply a rule of life or doctrine. Thus, there is a canon of music, art and criticism which are fundamental principles of these subjects. The canon of Scripture comprises the sixty-six books of the Old and the New Testaments, which, being inspired of God, constitute the infallible rule of faith and practice of the Christian church and the individual believer. The canonicity of any book of the Bible means its right to a place in the sacred canon. To have a place in the Old Testament a book must have been written, endorsed or edited by a prophet. Thus Christ, the Great Prophet, endorsed the Old Testament and thus forever established the right of all the books for a place therein. (See Luke 24:27, 44 and John 5:39). The three recognized divisions of the Old Testament were the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms. To have a place in the New Testament a book must have been written or endorsed by an apostle or received as Divine authority in the apostolic age. Thus Mark was endorsed by Peter and Hebrews by Paul.—Pardington. (References consulted: Strong, Evans, Collett, Pardington).

The subject for Sunday night, September 14, will be "Just How is the Bible Inspired?" All young people are invited to attend. The course is repeated on Wednesday nights at 7 o'clock for adults.
